One dollar, one thousand dollars, One Millionaire dollars are all same energy of Money. So if this is true why are you making the amount you are making? What is in the way of easily moving up to a Millionaire vibration. At some point whether willingly or unwillingly, conscious or unconscious you accepted limiting beliefs, contracts, vows, took oaths, and agreed to lack, scarcity, not enough, poverty, struggle, sacrifice, having to prove your worth. You are stuck where you are because you are running those frequencies. Money allows the expression of my gifts.

Let's clear them and recalibrate you to a higher frequency. Up-level to a higher Wealth Conscious Morphic field.

Day 2. Upgrade Your Operating system, Re-calibrate, Re-configure,- Re-Engineer, and Re-structure Your internal architecture, to your original Divine Blueprint. Regenerate Your DNA to your original Divine template and bring online the other 10 strands to Activate the Divine Human within You. Bring forth unrealized talents and abilities that are dormant. Create, build, and manifest from this place of ascension and higher frequency. You are Infinite Abundance.

Day 4: Your Goals, Your Vision, Your Future- What do you truly desire? Can you picture it in your mind's eye? If you can imagine it, you can hold it in your hand. Does your Goal, Vision or future feel like it's right around the corner? Can you see it, feel it, taste it? Or does it feel far away. What specifically do you want to see in your life? What feelings come up when you think about your Goals? What fears creep up as you bring your attention to what you desire? What self-judgements or judgement from others reveals itself as you dream bigger? What keeps you from expecting more for yourself? What keeps you from clearly seeing your vision? Do you have programs running about, I can't ask for too much, asking for more is greedy, It is not good to want more? If others do not have what they want then I shouldn't have it either? If I ask or desire more than I am taking from others? Others pay the price when I ask for more? I don't want more at the cost or expense of others? Let's clear all these confusing and lack programs so that you can tap into the source of infinite abundance.

Day 5. Heal the deeper layer of the Core Wounds that are fragmenting your reality- Chakra clearing, repair, upgrade and activation [ 1. Root(safety and survival), 2. Sacral(belonging, community and creativity) and 3. Solar Plexus (Self-Esteem, Personal Power and Drive)]
Abandonment, feeling unsafe, not feeling supported by source, being in survival, feeling Unworthy, Rejection, Not being Accepted, not being wanted, not fitting in, not belonging, feeling lonely, feeling uninspired and unmotivated, feeling not good enough, Not believing in Yourself, Not trusting Yourself, lacking drive and follow through, feeling powerless.

In Addition to the Emotional Wounds and Trauma, Let's clear the physical Shock and Trauma interfering with Receiving, Having, Creating, Manifesting and Growing what you desire.

Day 6. You desire what you desire and you effort to get it but do you have permission to have it! When we have layers of regret, resentment, guilt, shame and fault, we hold ourselves back. We Sabotage ourselves, we punish ourselves, or we reject abundance. We subconsciously and energetically keep it from coming in until we feel we have earned it or paid the price. Are you willing to give yourself Permission, Are you willing to let yourself have what you desire? Are you willing to treat yourself with kindness and compassion? Do you have the Right and ability to attract, manifest, create, and sustain what you desire? Reclaim your Right, Permission and Ability to have what makes you happy. Call back your power and revoke, rescind any soul binding contracts, un-create it all and step Powerfully into Choice and Sovereignty. I have the right, permission and ability to create wealth to support myself and my loved ones. Live Life by Design on your own terms.

Day 7. Your inner Wealth reflects Your Outer Wealth- Your inner wealth comes from your childhood. What negative association do you have attached to money? What fears from your childhood are reflecting in your outer wealth? What trauma is your inner child still holding, suppressing? What experience is stored in your subconscious mind that holds strong images of loss, failure, disappointment or struggle? What do you believe about yourself that is being validated by your outer environment? Do you love, belief, trust yourself? Are you kind, compassionate and respectful of yourself and how is that reflected back to you? Do you feel like life is difficult? Life is not easy? Life is too much? How is that being reflected back to you? Your thoughts are creating your reality. Let's locate these images in your bioenergetics field and quantum clear them all. What else do you believe about yourself that is reflecting in your outer wealth as low income, low wages, debt, financial victimization, financial legal suits, or financial hardship. Or it may show up as, being passed up for promotions, minimum salary raise, being overlooked or undervalued in your career or workplace. Do you compare yourself to others and feel less than, inadequate, or uncomfortable in your own skin? Let's transform Your inner child into a Master Manifestor.

Day 8. Achieve your Goals, Success and Wealth- Do you find yourself going through the motions of these exercises. Do you set goals because it is expected but deep down you are giving up/quitting before you begin? You are not quite committed to your results. You are avoiding being disappointed, disillusion, embarrassed. You have tried in the past and it has not worked. No matter how hard you've tried, you have not been able to realize substantial tangible results. So what is this about? Your ego, your inner child, your victim, the entities you created from emotional low vibrations are running the show. If they feel out of alignment they are going to pull or push in the opposite direction of what you want. If they feel threatened, they will act out. Many times is via sabotage. What else is holding you back from obtaining, seeing the results from all your endeavors? Perhaps the Attachments, judgement, conclusion, control, significance, and validation derived from getting results. Let's un-create this and give you a clean and clear slate so that you can create from a place of peace, joy and freedom. Let go of what it supposed to look like. Let's clear your bio-energetic field and reassigned your energy to support you and be a beacon for Prosperity.

Day 9. It's not about debt management is about freedom from debt. - Do you feel more grounded, more certain, more abundant and yet the money that is flowing in is in the form of debt. Do you feel indebted to people, organizations or institutions? Are you receiving from a vibration of debt? Can you easily receive without feeling indebted or that you have to reciprocate the same or more. This is a layer of unworthiness. When something is given and you feel it is too much, you unconsciously want to reject it, give it back or pay for it at a higher value. Do you hold a contract for yourself or the collective of being indebted? Is it playing out as shame or dishonor. Do you hold any confusion about debt? Maybe you are expected to be grateful for all that you receive or is available to you and if you reject what you receive, you will block your money flow. Let's clear your debt vibration and everything attached to it and move you into a new morphic field where money is free and comes without conditions, entanglement or attachments.

Day 10. What Income number is currently set to your vibration? If you keep attracting fairly the same week after week, month after month, then that is your money intention that is anchored into your field. You may be doing everything you can to up level your income but until you delete and un-create your current money program holding this vibration, you will earn the average amount. Discover what that number is. Let's increase your vibrational, emotional, spiritual and subconscious bank account so that it matches what you desire and manifests in your physical bank account. Let's clear ancestral, planetary, tribal and soul level clutter that is attached to this. What would it take to know and feel that money is good to you? What would it take for money to always be good for you? What would it take for money to always work for you? What would it take for money to always be available to you? What would it take for money to always show up for you? What would it take for wealth to be easy? Wealth is easy!

Day 11. Q & A- Live Group Call

Day 12. Lifetime regressions and Timeline resets- Remember the reason why you chose your journey. Move into creator, choice and responsibility. Let's scan your lifetimes to identify lesson and learnings that can be integrated to raise your vibration, open up more abundance, more joy, and more prosperity. Let's uncover blocks, distractions or interferences that are interfering with your timeline or other timelines that need to be healed in order to create a smooth path forward.

Day 13. Perfectionism, Procrastination, control. -Transform low vibrational energies in the quantum field to gratitude, trust and surrender. Are you hard on yourself? Who's expectations are you trying to live up to. Do you hold yourself back if you feel you won't be perfect at it? Do you stop yourself from playing all out? Do you become frustrated, angry, apathetic, unhappy even depressed when you are not performing at the level you expect? Do you procrastinate getting through tasks because you feel you are not good at it? It's too hard, too difficult, too overwhelming, not fun, time consuming etc...What else are you unwilling or resisting to do or take action on? Are some of those things financial? Bills, taxes, debt, saving? This is a reflection of love for yourself and love for money. If you loved yourself so much then you would be willing to do whatever it took to have what you want. If you loved money who would find ways to keep more of it, make more of it and honor it and your obligations in a way that was healthy and balanced.

Day 14. Cultivate a mind of success, thrive at being you and creating a life that works for you. Regain your confidence, belief in yourself and trust in yourself. Access your power centers and harness your courage. Let go of Worry, Fear and Doubt. These are your Achilles heel which sabotage your success. Turn your doubts, worries and fear into positive drivers to carry you forth. Stop living in the past and projecting into the future. Live in the present. Restore your sense of self, clear devalued, undervalued and feeling bankrupt. Excel at being you. Become the best version of you. Breakthrough the illusion you call your life and create a new reality.

Day 15. Your Pineal, Pituitary- Role and function of the Pineal and Pituitary glands for your evolution, ascension, and expansion. Let's optimize their function, upgrade them and open up to more divine guidance. Receive your Divine code in form of light, frequency, sound or images.

Day 17. Who do you blame for your current situation? Your parents, your significant other, your grandparents, your employer, your siblings, your neighbor, your kids maybe money? What keeps you stuck in the same vibration that you have been. When you think of certain people in your life, do you feel sad, angry, resentful, controlled, manipulated, unworthy, diminished, frustrated. Instead of stepping into possibility you stay stuck or use "what others are doing to you" as the excuse to stay where you are? Take full responsibility of what you are creating. Everything is within you. Everything showing up around you is a reflection of what is happening within you. Change starts with you. Be the Change you want to see in the world. Let go of blame, fault, reclaim your power. Let go of the excuses that you hold on to which keep you from shining your light. Step you're your best self and release procrastination, contentment, settling for less, settling for just enough, or surviving.

Day 18. Money Karma, business karma, personal karma- do you feel indebted to others, do you have guilt or feel bad about previous money dealings with family, friends, business relationships? Do you feel you financially harmed someone else. Do you feel you took something from others, putting them at a disadvantage or creating hardship? Do you feel you were harmed by money? Someone else harmed you financially. Do you feel victimized, vandalized, taken advantage, duped, abused, wronged by someone else? Fears, doubts worry as a result of that. Anywhere you took and did pay back or give back. Anywhere you didn't care or considered someone's situation with money. Were you negligent with the money or asset of others.
